Book Synopsis: It's time for FAITH to arise and all fear and doubt to be scattered! It's time for an eviction notice to be served to unbelief! It's time to move into that new, large, and wealthy place!

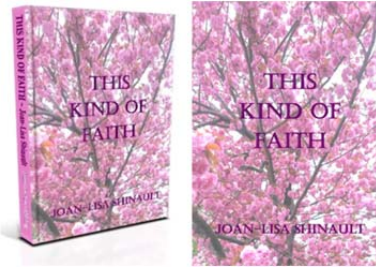

This Kind of Faith reveals a biblical truth concerning unbelief and faith and helps us to gain the confidence and assurance we need to truly operate in the God kind of faith.

This Kind of Faith speaks to readers and expounds on the essential practice of biblical prayer and fasting, that releases us from the spirit of unbelief; eradicating it and bolstering our faith; leading us into victorious living.

God has a remedy for us to win and defeat unbelief in our lives so we can accomplish His agenda in this final hour. This Kind of Faith teaches us how to win by tapping into the kind of faith that pleases God!
