"My tongue is the pen of a ready writer." (Psalms 45:1c)

About the Author of the Supernatural Living Today!

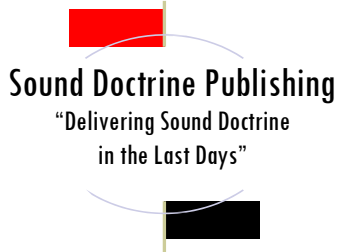

Minister Joan-Lisa Shinault was born and raised in Yonkers, NY. She was educated in the Yonkers Public School System and attended Binghamton University earning B.S. and M.A. degrees. She also holds a M.S. degree from Kansas State University. Minister Shinault also studied at Valor Christian College in Columbus, Ohio.

Minister Shinault received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the age of 21 while attending college. A higher education administrator and post-secondary education advocate, Minister Shinault is now committed to her God given assignment to write for the glory of God and share that writing with the masses. God has blessed and gifted her in the areas of teaching, writing, administration and showing mercy by loving and reaching out to others.

Minister Shinault is no stranger to overcoming challenges. She is a 10-year breast cancer survivor and she proclaims, "I am not just a 'survivor', but a thriver. I live to make my healing count in the lives of others."

Minister Shinault makes her boast in the Lord and is not ashamed or afraid to be transparent when ministering to others. She is a disciple of Jesus Christ and her local church, Perfecting Faith Church, located in Freeport, New York. She currently resides in Westchester County, New York.

Frequently Asked Questions

Author, Joan-Lisa Shinault

Sound Doctrine Publishing ~ PO Box 624 ~ Yonkers, NY 10704

Everyone always has a question or two for the author regarding their published work. Well, author of Supernatural Living Today, Joan-Lisa Shinault, does not mind sharing and being transparent regarding her experiences about the book. So, here are a few tantalizing Q & A tidbits for you to glean from, ponder and enjoy!

Q: What inspired the topic of the book?

A: The book was inspired by a very personal experience. In the book I share a testimony that stems from the theme of the book, living supernaturally or in accordance with the Holy Spirit.

Q: When did you recognize your gifting and ability to pen words for inspiration and teaching?

A: Over 20 years ago in the late 1990's the Lord spoke to me in prayer and said, "I put books in your belly." I really did not know what that meant, but over a period of time it was made clearer to me.

Q: How long did it take you to produce your first book?

A: I actually wrote the initial manuscript in eight days. I often say, now the book was birthed supernaturally in accordance with its title. Although it took me a little over a week to write it, it took me another two years to actually produce it in book format. That is a significant part of the testimony. You have to read the book to find out about all of the juicy bits and pieces during that time frame.

Q: How much did you rely upon your faith in God and His Word to complete the book?

A: My total faith, trust and reliance upon the Lord, was and still is an important element concerning this project. Often throughout the process of birthing this book, I had to reach back and remember God's Word and promises spoken to me, which is what faith is really all about. Knowing what God said, trusting in what He said enough that you act upon it. I was able to complete it by my faith in Him and what He said.

Q: In the title, “Supernatural Living Today! The word “today” places an emphasis on the here and now. Can you expound and share what was the impetus behind the use of the adverb “today”?

A: Well, in the book the theme of living by the dictates of the Holy Spirit is central, not only to the topic of the book, but in the life of the Born-Again Christian Believer. As Born-Again Christian Believers we must not live our lives as if the person of the Holy Spirit is optional in our lives. That being said, in our everyday living we are responsible for living a life that is lead and ruled by the Spirit of God. Total dependence upon the Holy Spirit is what we should be after on a daily basis.

The Church of Jesus Christ must rise up in these last days. Today in our society and more than ever, we need Born-Again Christian Believers to take their place in society and manifest as the Sons of God in the earth. This is where the Church become relevant and impacts society, rather than society impacting the Church. Thus, we must live supernaturally today and always if we are to usher in the return of Jesus Christ. If not now, when? Today is the day of living above the natural realm.

Q: What personal challenges contributed to the content of the book?

A: As I previously shared, a very personal testimony dealing with my challenges of finding my way in the world and my place in the Body of Christ. Among my professional peers, contemporaries, and even my brothers and sister in the fellowship of believers it can sometimes be a challenge to know exactly where you “fit in the picture”. After God progressively revealed who I was and what was my purpose, life’s challenges grew intense. I was diagnosed with breast cancer, suffered job loss and significant income loss, financial indebtedness grew, and the threat of homelessness constantly loomed over me. The book was a personal remedy for me as well, to help me combat all of these challenges that kept coming my way.

Q: Do you think the theme overly emphasizes the supernatural?

A: On the contrary, I think the book’s theme provides insight, wisdom and balance regarding the subject. All too often we do hear of those that over spiritualize and get “spooky” concerning the supernatural, but I believe the theme is something that we must discuss, teach and practice with a balanced mentality. The truth is as creatures made in the image of God, we are spirit first. That is the real us. Our spirit man was designed to commune with God and be the dominate force in our lives. Living supernaturally truly is the only way to really live.
